1. Mission
The Nuclear Criticality Safety Division (NCSD) Honors and Awards Committee is responsible for stimulating the recognition of Division members and for interacting with the Honors and Awards Committee of the Society.

2. Membership
The committee is composed of not fewer than four (4) members, including the Program Committee Chair and the Division Chair. The Chair of the Honors and Awards Committee shall be appointed by the Division Chair.

3. Responsibilities
The NCSD Honors and Awards Committee is responsible for the following:
- Establishing and implementing process for selecting best papers for the NCSD sessions at the Summer and Winter ANS meetings.
- Establishing and implementing process for selecting Technical Excellence and Distinguish Service Awards.
- Ensuring annual NCSD Awards Banquet is planned and organized.
- Identifying the need for new NCSD awards and establishing/implementing the process for selecting award winners.

4. Operating Guidelines
To accomplish the mission of the committee, the following operating guidelines will direct the performance of the NCSD Honor and Award Committee activities.

4.1. Rules of Conduct
   a) The NCSD Honors and Awards committee meets on an as-needed basis.
   b) Meetings may be conducted in person or via telecommunication (i.e., exchange of information between participants using technology, such as phone, video, etc.).
   c) Business may be conducted using electronic correspondence (e.g., e-mail, ANS Collaborate, phone call, video conference).
   d) When voting on an action item, a quorum of at least three (3) NCSD Honors and Awards members must register a vote.
   e) The NCSD Honors and Award Chair tallies votes and notifies the NCSD Honors and Award Committee of the results.

4.2. Best Paper Selection
   a) Before each ANS Summer and Winter meeting, decide how best papers will be graded and generate score sheets to hand out.
   b) Ensure score sheets are completed for each NCSD session, as appropriate.
c) After each meeting, tally results and determine winner(s).

d) In October, ensure winner(s) are notified and arrange for a free dinner at the NCSD Awards Banquet for each winner.

e) Ensure certificate(s) are prepared for the annual awards dinner.
   - The Honors and Awards Committee may prepare the certificates or obtain the certificates through the American Nuclear Society.
   - A template for the Best Paper certificate is provided as an attachment.

4.3. Technical Excellence and Distinguished Service Awards

a) By early August, send out reminder to encourage nominations and provide deadline (i.e., August 31).

b) After deadline has expired, chair collects nominations and sends to Honors and Awards committee for evaluation.

c) By September 30, Honors and Award Committee members evaluate the nominations and determine winners, as applicable.

d) In October, ensure plaques are ordered from ANS. Contact nominator to develop a very short citation for the plaque and confirm the name spelling, title, etc.

e) In October, ensure winner is notified and arrange for free dinner at the annual NCSD awards dinner for them + guest.

f) Get checks from treasurer for awardees and plaque reimbursement. The amount of check is determined based on NCSD budget. Checks will require a mailing address and phone # for each recipient.

4.4. NCSD Awards Banquet

a) In June, identify individual(s) to plan and coordinate the NCSD Awards Banquet at the Winter meeting.

b) In August or September, identify and reserve the venue for the banquet. Work with the NCSD treasurer to pay required deposit.

c) In September, identify sponsors for awards banquet and establish the dinner price.

d) One month prior to the Awards Banquet, ensure the banquet is announced to NCSD. An example e-mail is provided in the

Note

The number of winners selected for Best Paper may vary from meeting to meeting based on the number of NCSD sessions and the results of the score sheets. The Honors and Awards Committee has the flexibility to review the results of the score sheets and determine if one overall winner will be identified for all sessions or if a winner will be identified for each session.
attachments; however, the banquet details may be communicated via e-mail, ANS Collaborate, NCSD website, or other means.

e) Collect money from sponsors and attendees and ensure money is turned in to ANS at the Winter meeting. It is crucial to maintain accurate records of money received (i.e., from who and amount).
f) Ensure dinner program is designed and printed. Confirm spelling of names prior to printing.
g) Ensure plaques for Distinguished Service, Technical Excellence, and Outgoing Chair are obtained and brought to banquet, as appropriate.
h) Ensure certificates for best paper are prepared and brought to banquet.
i) Ensure someone will serve as photographer.
j) After dinner, ensure an article is prepared for newsletter.
